

CHOIR NOTES FOR PEACE

We have begun a new season of singing God's praise during our worship services. The most important purpose for our singing is to relay a message, just as our pastor's sermon has a message each Sunday, so do we. Please let us know if you are able to understand what we are singing about. We want to make sure our words are sung clearly. We also take requests. If you have a favorite song that you would like to hear, I will do my best to find it.

My heart leaps for joy, and with my song, I praise him. Psalm 28:7

Respectfully submitted,
Lu Ann Cooke
